Trip Overview

ABOUT THIS PACKAGE

Here, you won't puzzle over the place to go as everything you need is close by. Resort «Dorado Beach, a Ritz-Carlton Reserve» is located in Dorado. This resort is located in 4 km from the city center.

There are six Ritz-Carlton Reserves in the world and only one of them in the Western Hemisphere. This is it. It's a special place, where ordinary doesn't apply. Consider Spa Botánico, a place as stunningly unique as it is deeply satisfying. You must make your way around a 100-year-old tree at its center to begin your blissful journey. And if trees inspire you, enjoy a Tree House Massage in the breezy canopy of tropical foliage. The suites and residences feature Island "signatures": the ocean just outside your door; the personal attention of an Embajador; outdoor living space; an open-air shower and artwork capturing the colors of nature. The newly transformed Su Casa, built in the 1920s, offers a two-story, five-bedroom villa along the coastline.

TPC DORADO BEACH – EAST COURSE

Mr. Jones lengthened the course by 700 yards to a formidable 7,200 yards, with most holes playing against a strong Caribbean trade wind. The greens were completely redesigned to match the original and planted features of Bermuda Champions, creating incredibly fast and flowing putts. The bunkers have been reshaped and filled with native beach sand.

TPC DORADO BEACH – SUGARCANE COURSE

The Dorado Beach Plantation Sugarcane Course is the more challenging of the two Plantation courses at this Caribbean golf resort, although it has larger fairways and greens. The course has more forced carries and deeper bunkers that can penalize you for a bad shot. The back nine is surrounded by newly created rivers and lakes and offers a very different look never seen on the old Cerromar and Dorado courses, making it a hidden gem among Puerto Rico golf courses. Players have the opportunity to make birdies early in the course, but par is an excellent score on most holes on the back nine.
